A Note from the Principals

Dear Parents and Guardians,

It's Show Week! Our students involved in our production of Annie Jr. are beyond excited for their performances this weekend, Friday at 7:00 P.M. and Saturday afternoon at 2:00 P.M. General admission tickets are still available and can be purchased at the door for $6 per ticket. Congratulations to Miss Haneman, her assistants Mrs. Benoit, Miss Kramer and Mrs. Lucano, for all of the hard work and dedication you have provided our students over the past several months. We know the show will be a huge hit! Break a leg!

Last week, we reminded you about the upcoming Terra Nova test dates. Please be mindful not to schedule any visits or appointments on the mornings of those test days. Should your child be ill, we will have a make up day on Saturday, March 25, for any student who missed the In-View, Reading or Math portions of the Terra Nova.

After some requests from students, we are trying to bend slightly on the "no nail polish" rule in our school dress code. After careful consideration and discussion with the faculty, it was decided that clear, light pale, natural shades and French manicures would be acceptable. No designs, decals or fake nails will be permitted. Decisions regarding the specifics with regard to this change will be left to the discretion of the teacher.

Finally, we are happy to announce that Miss Gabrielle Larson has been hired as a full-time substitute teacher for the 6th, 7th and 8th grade, replacing Mr. Rash. Miss Larson is a graduate of Millersville University and has been teaching in local Catholic and public schools as a regular and long term sub. She is eager and enthusiastic to begin teaching here at Holy Family!

Tomorrow begins the season of Lent. We will be celebrating Mass at 9:30, led by our 4th grade. Please join us if your schedule permits!

Have a great week!

Mrs. Robinson
